

KINDERGARTEN NEWS 11/7/16

Reading: We will be mastering the letter Bb and its sound. We will be predicting and practicing sequencing in the stories that we read in class.

Math: We will work on addition and missing #s and number representation this week.

Homework: Tuesday - read sentences/ABC dot to dot

Wednesday - letter B in the Alphabet Book

Thursday - write Bb/review math concepts.

Reminder: homework is due the next day.

Please review the flashcards and read a story each night.

Miscellaneous: Keep up the good work habits at home.

Kindergarten only gets harder. The children need to master what we present now so that they can keep building on what we give them next.

There is a 2 hour delay on November 18th for teacher inservice.

There will be Thanksgiving vacation from November 23-25.

Tattoos for sale on Thursdays for $1.

Orange and black for spirit day on Friday.

Reminder: Gym on Wednesdays and Fridays.

Please wear tennis shoes.

Have your child make words with the letters in their flashcard bags. Ex.) bat, tab, van, cab, hat, etc. The more you do, the better your child can keep up in class!

Aren't you excited that they are putting sounds together to read! Thank you so much for helping and assisting at home!
